IMPORTANT- TO BE COMPLETED BY ALL APPLICANTS

I apply to become a Member of Oatlands Golf Club Limited and agree to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Club as well as the Rules of Golf.

In making application for membership of the Club, I acknowledge and accept that I will be subject to the AGU/WGA handicapping system and my handicap may be reviewed in the absolute discretion of the General Committee/Board on the basis of any cards returned in any competition.

The Australian Golf Union (AGU) requires the information requested on this form for the purposes of GOLF Link. Your personal information will be used in accordance with the GOLF Link "activity" and to provide you with GOLF Link services. If the requested information is not provided to the AGU you may not be able to obtain GOLF Link services including an official Australian handicap. Should you wish, you will be able to access your personal information through the AGU upon reasonable notice.

SIGNATURE OF APPLICANT: DATE:

Applicants for JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP must attach a copy of their BIRTH CERTIFICATE.

You will need to sign the application and gain signatures of a Proposer and Secunder both of whom must be Voting members of Oatlands Golf Club of at least one year standing, however, there is provision to support an applicant if he or she does not know any members. Any such candidate must attach at least two letters of introduction from upstanding members of the community eg: doctor, lawyer, accountant, your employer or another club where you are a member. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, seek further references in relation to any applicant for membership.

Once the Club has received your application it will be posted on the Club Notice Board for 14 days. You will then be contacted requesting your attendance, accompanied by your parent or guardian, at an interview with members of the Board of Directors.

PRIVACY POLICY

Oatlands Golf Club is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988. The Act contains 10 National Privacy Principles that set standards for the handling of personal information. The Club has a commitment to privacy and the safeguarding of member, visitor and staff personal information.

Any personal information provided by you to the Club (e.g. name, address, date of birth and contact details), including information collected as a result of a membership card being placed in a club machine that may provide a benefit or service to you, will be protected.

The Club does not usually disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. The Club may disclose personal information to relevant authorities if it reasonably believes that there is a threat to an individual's life, health or safety, or public health or safety. If the Club has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, personal information may be used or disclosed as a necessary part of any investigation and reporting to relevant persons or authorities.

The Club's annual Members Programme, including the names and telephone numbers of members, is distributed to all members of the Club and selected neighbouring Clubs. If you do not want your name and telephone number included in the Members Programme then please advise the Office in writing. The Club may disclose your information for the purpose of publicising the results of our golfing competitions and to other Clubs in regard to handicaps, if required.

The Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure.

You have a right to access any personal information that the Club may hold about you, including a right of correction of your information. The Club will generally not charge a fee for you to access your personal information.

If you require any further information, please contact Club Administration.
