2010 Victorian Junior Masters

Final Day - Wednesday 6 January

Waverley Golf Club Ltd
ABN 64 04 302 292

The 16th annual Victorian Junior Masters concluded today at Waverley Golf Club with yet again another close and exciting finish. Ben Rogers (Sorrento) started the day with a 4 stroke lead over Will Hume, with a number of experienced players within striking distance. By the 65th hole, Tom Power Horan jumped out of the pack to catch Rogers. Displaying steady nerves on the final holes with a number of clutch par saves, Power Horan claimed the title by one stroke from Rogers and the experienced Ryan Peake (WA).

Congratulations to Tom Power Horan the 2010 Victorian Junior Masters Champion; Tom's name will be placed on the trophy alongside past winner such as Aaron Baddley, Marc Leishman, Michael Sim and Jason Day.

Ben Rogers concluded a successful tournament to win the Nett event. Playing off a 4 handicap, Ben fired Nett rounds of 65, 68, 70, 71 = 274. DJ Loypur was successful in the under 16 section (300) from Ben Eccles and Sean Ong. The under 14 title was secured by Frazer Droop (160). In the girls event, Reanna Matthews continued her fantastic form to claim the title by 8 shots from Britney Mueck.

Congratulations to all participants on another successful year, we look forward to welcoming all players, spectators and visitors back to Waverley Golf Club in 2011 for the 17th annual event.
